MOVIES AT THE MUSEUM
SATURDAY, JANUARY 28, 2017

Plan ahead to hear Glen Matteson's talk on "A Railroad That Never Was", followed by "The Hurricane Express", the next in our series of MOVIES AT THE MUSEUM.

"A Railroad That Never Was" - In 1891 Myron Angel sought investors for a railroad to link San Luis Obispo with the San Joaquin Valley, a can't-lose proposition that would be far superior to the approaching Southern Pacific and its connection with San Francisco city slickers.

"Hurricane Express" - A very young John Wayne stands between a mysterious villain and railroad mayhem, with the help of some very early special effects, amid some locations you may recognize.

Join us on Saturday, January 28, 2017. Included with admission to the Museum, $3 per person. Starts at 3 pm.

MEMBERSHIP REMINDER

All memberships now are annual, ending on December 31st. If you haven't renewed yet, do so before the end of the year to qualify for a

FREE GUEST PASS. Family memberships and sustaining memberships will get TWO. And, if you include an additional donation of $20 or more, you can request a FREE copy of "CALIFORNIA'S CAPITOL CORRIDOR". See the SLORRM website for more information about this new book. Remember to request a copy with your donation. Thank you!

MEMBERS: We are looking for friendly new docents. Do you like local railroad history, or just like talking to people? Would you like to learn how to restore a historic artifact or railroad equipment?
