FILLMORE AND WESTERN RAILWAY

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 5, 2020

10:00am PST

Presenter: Jamie Foster

In March of 2014, a small group from the Friends of the SMVRR visited the Fillmore and Western Railway (FWRy) for a day of exploring and a train ride.

We'll revisit their trip via slides and commentary as they checked out all manner of equipment around the property, rode one of their Weekend Scenic Tours from Fillmore to Santa Paula and back, explored downtown Santa Paula a bit, and stopped at the Loose Caboose Garden Center (where Matteo, pictured above at the FWRy, thoroughly enjoyed the koi, birds, turtles, etc.)

FYI, the Fillmore and Western Railway is running various holiday excursion tours Thursday - Sunday throughout December 2020.

For this session, video and audio are highly recommended in order to see the photos and graphics as well as hear the commentary.

SKUNK TRAIN RAILBIKES
SATURDAY, DECEMBER 19th, 2020
10:00 am PST

Presenter: Gary See

The Skunk Train (California Western Railway) has run from Fort Bragg to Willits for more than 100 years, but has been cut in two since the latest tunnel collapse at milepost 3.6 in 2016. While the railroad continues to try to secure funds to reopen the line, they have built custom "rail-bikes" and take groups of riders on a 7 mile bike ride up into the redwoods. You peddle your way up the canyon and back but battery operated motors provide assistance when needed. Gary and Pam See took the trip last year. During this session, Gary and Pam will share photos and video clips of their trip and discuss this totally different way to "ride the rails".

For this session, video and audio are highly recommended in order to see the photos and graphics as well as hear the commentary.
