SLO TRAIN DAY

Thanks to all the volunteers who worked so hard to make SLO Train Day a success. We had great coffee from The Central Roast, loads of swap meet items, the opening of our beautiful new exhibit on the Santa Maria Valley Railroad, and speakers throughout the day. Among the activities was the dedication of our semaphore sign to the memory of Arnold Jonas, long-time Board Member.

JIM GREGORY

SATURDAY, JULY 1st, 1 pm.

Listen to Jim Gregory talk about his new book on outlaws, villains and scalawags in San Luis Obispo County. Hear about some of the dastardly deeds from the history of our area. Did you know that the James brothers lived in our county while hiding out?

ART AFTER DARK
FRIDAY, JULY 7, 2017
6 to 9 pm

SLO'S Art After Dark is expanding. No longer is this event confined to downtown San Luis Obispo. View the railroad art of our excellent local artists, while mixing and mingling with other rail enthusiasts in the 1894 Southern Pacific Freighthouse, now the home of the San Luis Obispo Railroad Museum. See the beautiful work of local historic painters and up-and-coming photographers.

This event is FREE to the public.
